Rules & Regulations [please check]

I want to be in the Kids' Walking Unit or Kids' Bike Unit in the 2017 Popcorn Parade on Saturday, September 9, 2017

All bikes or wagons must be decorated to participate

I/we agree not to throw (from my entry) anything, such as candy, etc. into the crowd.

I/we will not hold the Valparaiso Events, Inc. or Popcorn Festival Parade Committee responsible for any personal injury during the Parade.

I am in the 5th grade or under

Please cut along the dotted line & keep instructions listed below

Kids' Unit Instructions for Parents:

- The Popcorn Parade begins at 10 a.m. with the Kids' Unit finishing approximately around 10:30a.m.
- Lineup is at the corner of Evans & Calumet by the stoplight outside of Old Fairgrounds Park in Valparaiso.
- If your child wants to be judged for awards, please line up by 8:30 a.m.
- Parents may walk with child in parade, but may not be on a bike.
- No rollerblades, skates, or motorized bikes are allowed in the Kids' Unit.
- The parade ends at Ben Franklin (BF) Middle School. Parents MUST be at BF at 10:30 a.m. There is no babysitting provided for your child. If you are not walking with your child in the parade, you may get a parking pass when you drop off your child. This pass will give you access to use the lot at BF so you can park there before the parade begins. Watch the parade at BF while you wait for your child.
